

Questions and documents for application at
PHD level

You will find below the list of all the questions that you will need to answer in your application for the Eiffel scholarship with the University Paris-Saclay.

Use the list of required documents to ensure that you have everything you will need before you begin your application.

Title (Mr., Mrs.)

Last name

First name

Nationality

Date of birth

Sworn statement that you do not hold French nationality

Email address

Are you currently pursuing a PhD?

Name of the home institution

Type of institution (public or private, university or school)

City

Country

Have you obtained, or are you in the process of obtaining, a co-supervision/co-direction with Paris-Saclay University?

Field of study :

-Biology and health

-Ecological transition

-Mathematics and digital

-Science and engineering

-History, French language and civilization

-Law and political sciences

-Economics and management

Name of the doctoral school to which the student belongs

Name of the host laboratory

Documents to be provided

All documents in the same category must be merged into a single PDF

- Photocopy of passport (identity page) or identity papers
- Curriculum vitae written in French or English (1 to 2 pages)
- Transcripts of grades obtained during the Master
- Post-secondary diplomas
- Certificate or diploma in the language of instruction for the intended program if it's not your native language (if applicable)
- Motivation letter / Professional project, written in French or in English (1 to 2 pages). The applicant should write their project in a way that explains the choice of studies in France in relation to previous studies and the future professional career.
- Letters of recommendation from academic and professional references (max 3 letters)
- Co-supervision agreement or a certificate of co-direction signed by the French and foreign parties (in case of co-direction, attach a letter co-signed by the 2 directors)
- Presentation of the thesis project and the progress of the research, written in French or English (1 to 5 pages). If possible, proof of at least one communication in a conference (cite references, attach an excerpt)
- Assessment of the thesis director (from the University of Paris-Saclay) on the excellence of the candidate and on the coherence, relevance and innovative character of the thesis project
- Letter of reason written by the director of the host laboratory at University Paris-Saclay (can be a simple email)
- Letter of reason written by the director of the doctoral school at the University of Paris-Saclay (can be a simple email)
- Reasoned opinion on the scientific quality of the thesis subject, written by a university professor/research director who is an expert in the field of research concerned (in compliance with ethical rules)
- Curriculum vitae of the university professor/research director in question (maximum 2 pages)
- Global Financing plan of the thesis